CREATIVE WRITING EXERCISES

Using your creativity, answer the following questions or give the information being asked. There are no wrong answers, so give it all you've got!

1. If you were to name a new planet in the Solar System, what would you name it and why?

2. From the given letters, invent a new word and explain what it means. R F I Y E X T N

Your new word: _____

The definition: _____

3. You are writing a novel about a young boy who traveled to the future and communicated with robots and talking vehicles. What title would you give this book?

4. What would you name this random shape?

Make sure it hasn't been already used by any other shapes.

5. "Berluge" is a made-up English word. It is a verb. Its simple past tense is berlugged, present progressive is berlugging, and future tense is will berluge.

Give it a meaning based on your imagination, and create a sentence using it.

6. You were trapped in an elevator with a famous person. Who was it? What would you ask them? _____

7. A man was walking fast and mindlessly. He stepped on an open manhole, and fell into a colorful abyss. What was the tunnel headed to? _____
